

Professional Profile

John Letham

I seek to offer supervision to executive and life coaches, either one to one or within a group setting, using a variety of appropriate structures and techniques.

Working Methods

As a Coach Supervisor, I aim to foster a confidential, respectful, trustful, and professional partnership with the goal of encouraging the coach to deepen their awareness and enhance their maturity through reflection on, and support of, their coaching practice. My natural approach is open, direct, and ultimately solution focused.

Experience and Qualifications

I have worked in international business development and management for over 30 years, with significant experience across many sectors and environments. I am a vibrant futurist, with a passion for self-improvement and developing other people, with a proven track record of nurturing, encouraging and reinvigorating talent. I have been coaching professionally since 2015 and offering supervision to other coaches since 2017. My rigorous continued personal development ensures continued exposure to different coaching models and styles.

I have worked with hundreds of individual clients and successfully delivered and supported coaching, mentoring, training and development programmes for creative and cultural organisations such as BAFTA, Cultural Enterprise Office, Film Distributors Association, Film Hub Scotland, Help Musicians, Inside Pictures, Mindful Talent Coaching Academy and TRC.

I have formal qualifications in coach supervision, coaching, leadership, and Action Learning group facilitation:

- Certificate in Principle Led Coach Supervision, Institute of Leadership and Management accredited and approved course (2021).
- Advanced Certificate in Coaching Practice, achieving all levels of the Association for Coaching Competency Framework.
- Action Learning Facilitation accredited by the Institute of Leadership & Management.
- ILM Level 5 Diploma in Leadership & Management.
